

Storyboard

Location: Elderly persons home

Problem: Disabled or elderly have limited accessibility in their homes. Sometimes due to disabilities or limited hand strength/mobility.

Task: Access items stored in cabinets, small compartments, or behind doors that people might struggle with due to physical effort.

Device: servo-motor powered, button/sensor device that is installed on cabinets or doors,

25-30% of adults aged 60 or older live alone. (US)
This woman falls under that category and has trouble due to limited hand strength/mobility

